New Business:

1. Parking Kiosk Update- The Kiosks are in and operating. They take dimes, Nichols, and quarters, plus credit cards. Signs are on the Kiosks. Bollards are painted as well. The ticketing began this week. There is an app called "Pango" which will be available. It uses Google maps. In the fall we will install the meters bythe Senior Center. Packer Pool Lifeguards parking passes have been issued.

2. We received $6,400 in March, $6,802 in April, and $9,500 in May from parking tickets.

   Kim Miller made a motion to put the time on the machine as regular 12 time, versus the 24 hour time clock, if at all possible. Curt Schramm seconded the motion and it carried.

   Ellen Dunham Bryant made a motion to have the signage on the kiosk to show signage enforcement hours, if not already in place. Al Garrison seconded the motion and it carried.

   Al Garrison made a motion to pursue the phone app as expediently as possible in order to stave off tenants and any long term parking dilemma that might occur. Kim Miller seconded the motion and it carried.
