Public Comments on Agenda Items- none

Items:

1.) Parking Update
   a. West Avenue Parking – Changes have been made to the parking in front of the West End Dance Studio. The spaces in front of the house before the studio have been changed to no parking until snow has been removed. The other spots still remain no parking to help with traffic congestion. Instructors have also started crossing the students across the street at the end of class to help ensure their safety.
   b. New PANGO stickers have been received by the borough and will be placed on meters next month.
2.) Kiosk Discussion
   a. Extra parts have been ordered and have been received by Chief Boyce. This will allow both kiosks to remain functional if parts are required. Borough Manager Rachiele has also started checking the kiosks for functionality as part of his tasks in the borough.

Other Business:

Parking Authority long time member Al Garrison announced his resignation from the authority. The other members thanked him for his service.
